Who is ARCH

A Regional Coalition for Housing was established in 1992 to create and preserve affordable housing for low- and moderate-income people in East King County by:

- Supporting housing policy and planning.
- Investing local dollars and leveraging other investment into affordable housing.
- Providing efficient shared administration of local housing programs.
- Directly engaging the community with information and expertise.

ARCH Rental and Homeownership Programs

ARCH Rental Program

Rent restricted apartments in market rate developments.

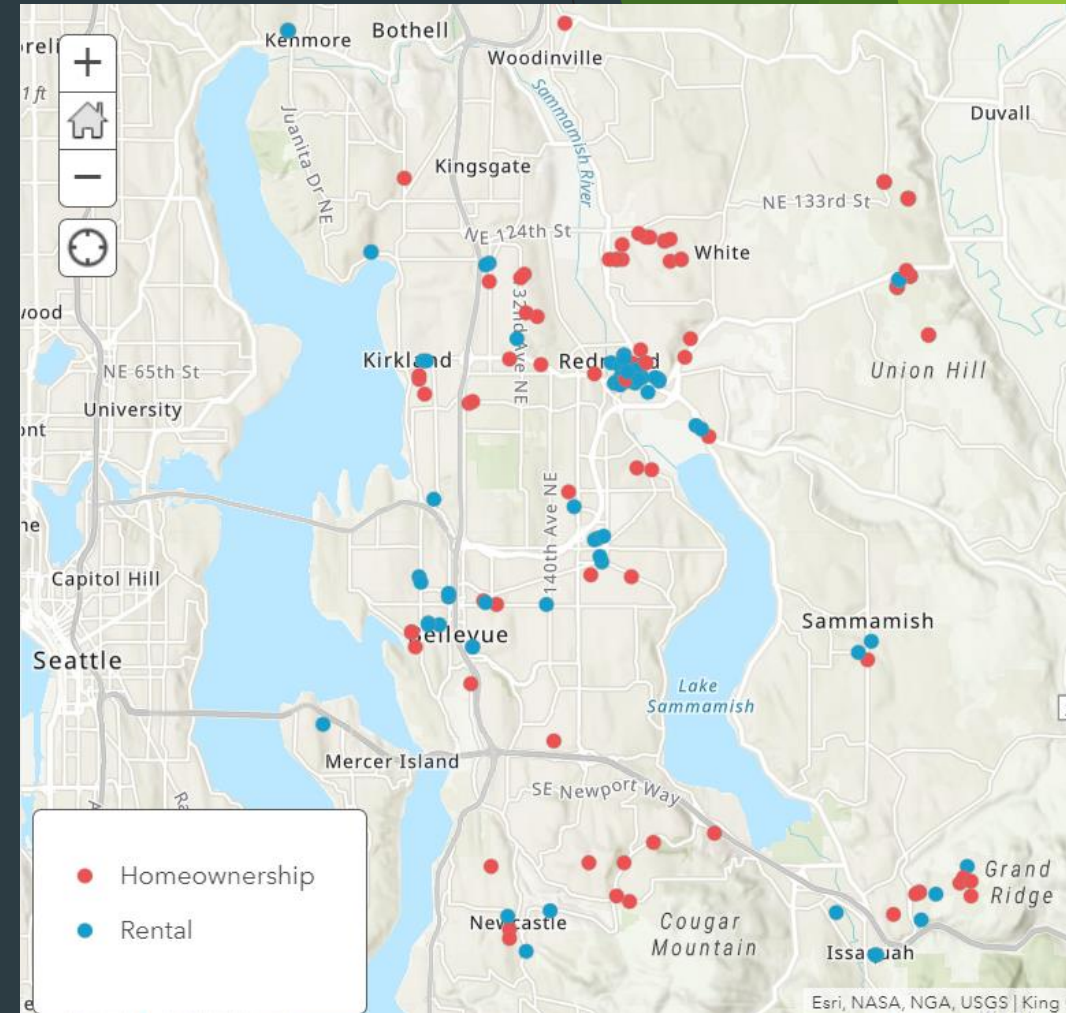

Households must meet income eligibility guidelines

~2,300 apartments, additional ~700 apartments in development.

ARCH Homeownership Program

Affordable ownership homes in market rate developments

~700 homes in the program, additional ~60 in development

ARCH Rental Program Overview

How it Works

- Each property has a set number of rent restricted units.
- ARCH applicants/tenants must be income eligible.
- Based on King County Area Median Income (AMI).
- Monthly rent must not exceed the applicable rent limit.

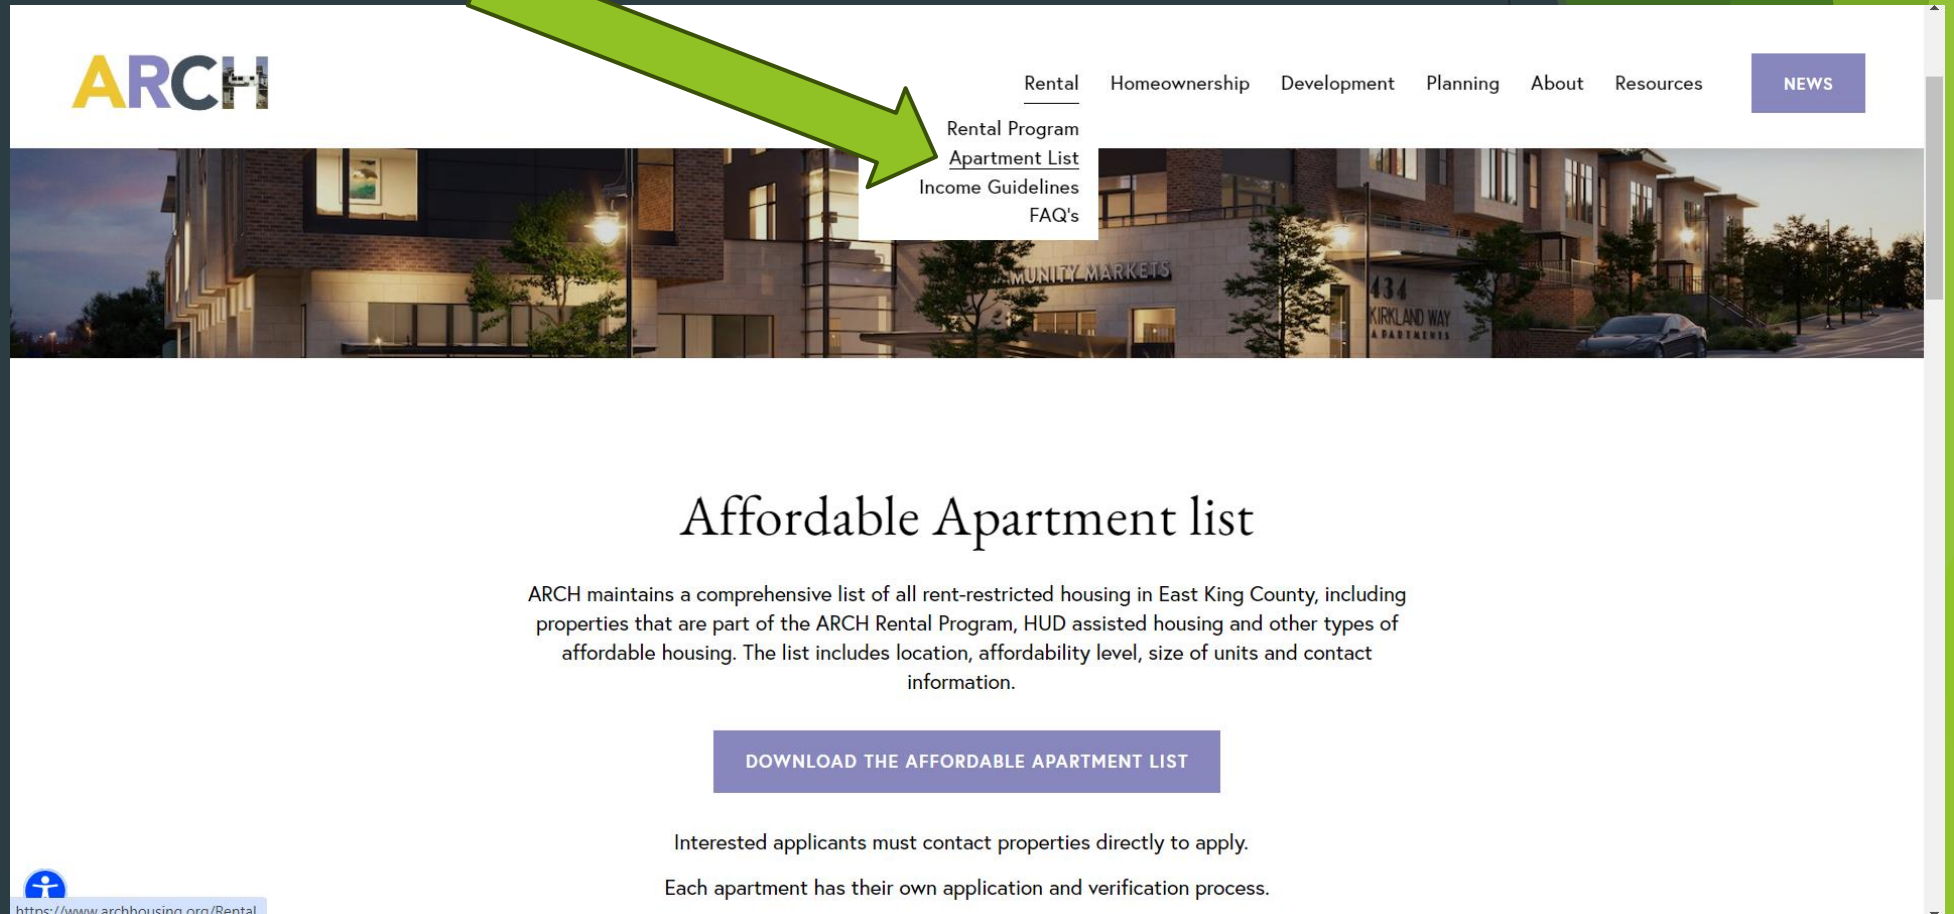

How to Apply

1. Access the Affordable Apartment List on ARCH's website.
2. Estimate the household's income eligibility level.
3. Contact Properties directly to apply.
4. Property's Application, ARCH Eligibility Form, and Income Verification

ARCH Rental Program Scenario

Step 5

1. Gather and submit household's income documentation for income verification process

For more details, please view the ARCH Renter Guide on the ARCH Rental Program Webpage.

Income Sources	What Counts as Income	Documentation to Have on Hand
Employment Income	Gross wages, tips, commissions, and bonuses. No deductions are allowed for wage garnishments, healthcare, taxes, etc.	90 days' worth of paystubs or applicable documentation such as shift summaries, an offer letter for a new position, etc.
Self-Employment	Net amounts earned from the business. Gross income – business expenses – interest on loans unrelated to business expansion – depreciation of business assets.	Self-Employment Verification Form will be provided to you. For businesses one year or older, have most recent signed 1040 with schedules, or if business less than a year old, bring Profit and Loss statement.
